We will be offering Holiday Photos at the fair this year. All day Saturday, you can have your photo(s) taken in front of a beautiful seasonal backdrop. Have lunch or do some shopping at the fair while you wait for your photos to be prepared.

FROM THE EDITOR

God's Highly Valued Investment

We often underestimate our own talents, perhaps from fear of failure or just of lack of knowledge of what is involved, or in some cases not realizing our own ability to learn new things. When one of my sons was in 3rd or 4th grade he was concerned about what sort of job he would have when he was an adult and had to work. At the time there was a Photomat booth in the Grand Union [now Stop & Shop] parking lot, and he thought that might be something he could do—run the Photomat booth. Well, photography has changed a lot since then, and if my son had not gone on and learned a lot more things (he's an attorney now), he would certainly be out of a job!

Someone once asked IBM founder Thomas Watson if he would fire an employee who made a mistake that cost the company $60,000. To the questioner's surprise, Watson replied, "Why would I fire someone in whom I've invested $60,000 in training?"

Neither will God "fire" or in any way dismiss us for our mistakes and failures. He has invested far too much in each of us — even his own Son's life! —for that.

Don't hold back for fear of failure. Serve the Lord boldly. Try something new for the sake of the Gospel, and when you make a mistake, bring it honestly to God in prayer. Be open to the Holy Spirit, who provides "continuing education" — in Scripture, through other Christians and by connecting directly with your heart — to improve your skills and gifts every day. —RMD (with excerpts from the Newsletter Newsletter)

STEWARDSHIP

Dear Parish Family,

Former Archbishop of Canterbury William Temple once said regarding the church: The church is the only organization that exists for the benefit of its non-members. Archbishop Temple's quote should serve as a reminder of the sacred responsibility God has given to us in the care and nurturing of not only our church, but also to the people who enter her doors seeking a beacon of light and sacred comfort within our walls.

Soon you will receive your 2014 pledge card and I hope when you receive it you will prayerfully discern your pledge to Saint Ann's for the coming year and give as generously as you possibly can. Saint Ann's has been a beacon of light for over 120 years and during that time it has been the pledges of the Saint Ann's family of faith that kept the doors of this church open so that you might be sitting in the pews today.

And now it is our responsibility to do the same. It is time for us to give back a portion of what God has so graciously blessed us with so that the work of the church may move forward in mission and function. I know that we continue to live in uncertain financial times; and yet such times make the work of the church even more critical to those who need our help; spiritually, emotionally and financially. For these reasons and more, I pray that you will give as generously as possible.

Ingathering Sunday is November 3rd and you are being asked to please bring your pledge card on that day so they may be blessed and lifted up to God so we may continue to the work Christ has given us to do.

Blessings, Mother Diane+

Tiffany Window Update

At their September meeting your vestry approved the expense of $22,000 - $24,000 for the repair of the stained glassed window and the work will begin soon. As I mentioned in my September Correspondent article, thanks to your generosity, to date our Tiffany window campaign has received $21,472.00 in donations; for which we are very grateful. The Legacy Fund will pay for a portion of the cost of this window; so with a portion of your contributions and a portion of the legacy contribution, the cost of this first window is covered and we need not worry about paying for it.

However, while the legacy will continue to pay for a portion of the cost of the remaining repairs and restorations, we still need your financial support as we move forward with this project. If you have not already contributed to this campaign, please prayerfully consider it so that we can continue the restoration of our iconic Tiffany windows. Our hope is to repair two more windows in 2014 and the remaining window in 2015.

I will keep you informed on the progress and when we might expect to have the window reinstalled.

-- Mother Diane+

Vestry Visions

Do we have your attention?
While of course we don't want to stop you from entering
St. Ann's grounds, the Vestry does want to emphasize the need for SAFETY!

Far too often, parishioners and visitors don't stop at the stop sign as they drive by the Choir door. They don't even slow down. Often people are walking toward the church or Parish Hall or children are playing right there. Despite our exit/ enter/ and do not enter signs, it's also disturbingly common for people to use the east side driveway (closest to the church) to exit or the west side driveway to enter. We fear these are accidents waiting to happen. Please be extra careful to follow the signs when driving into, on, and out of our grounds. When walking toward the church or across the parking lot, watch out for the reckless drivers.

Stop and think; do enter—but safely!

On another subject, your Vestry always wants to hear your suggestions, answer your questions, and encourage you to participate in the areas of ministry and parish life as listed below. Please talk to us, call, or email!

VOLUNTEER TREE HELP NEEDED!

The trees for St. Ann's annual Christmas Tree Sale will arrive on November 30th, the Saturday following Thanksgiving. This is an important and busy ministry, but it goes fast and should be over in two weeks! Can you give a little of your time for this fun, outdoor project?

Although these trees sell themselves, I am asking folks to come forward to assist as branch managers for the tree sale. This is among the most enjoyable ministries we have—all the customers are in a holiday mood! Please volunteer to share in the management of this worthy project! Many hands make light work. You can contact me via e-mail, telephone, or in person so that we can meet and talk.

CLERGY COLUMN

Broke

During my time as the priest in charge of a homeless ministry in downtown Springfield, Massachusetts I had dozens of different books recommended to me by others who worked in street ministry. Some were quite good, most so-so, and many were just unreadable, but few ever stood out. But of those few that do stand out, one of the best in my experience is Greg Paul's God in the Alley: Being and Seeing Jesus in a Broken World (Shaw Books 2004). Paul is the pastor and founder of Sanctuary Ministries. Founded in 1992, the church and community has served the homeless, street people, addicts, prostitutes and a whole slew of colorful characters in one of Toronto's worst poorest neighborhoods.

Okay, so what makes Greg Paul's book so great? First of all, it is honest, and by that I do not just mean his accounts of those who he works with day to day. By honest, I mean he tells of his own trials, his errors, and of the times he has broken down, lost his temper, and gone as far as threatening to go pound on an especially problematic member of his flock. In other words, the brokenness in the world in which he serves Christ is not just out there, but within him as well.

That's the thing about being human, we all can be the best darn Christians ever, but we are still human. So no matter how close our walk with Jesus, no matter how much time we spend in prayer, and no matter how many times we go to church each week, we don't get to be perfect. (Well, at least not yet.) Because we are human, we all have our own particular shade of brokenness. God knows this about us, and God sent Christ to live among us. Through Christ, we learn that our brokenness is not always a hurdle, but a path in which we can reach out to others. It is our willingness to share our own brokenness, and to others know that, not in spite of it, but through it Christ makes himself known.

We all have our own journey, as well as our own obstacles. But as those who proclaim Christ as Lord, none of us walks alone. With Jesus, we walk alongside of one another, lifting one another up, and letting each other know one simple thing, we never walk alone.

UNITED THANK OFFERING (UTO) SUNDAY, OCTOBER 6

The UTO has been in existence for close to 120 years and is still growing throughout the world. The UTO is our own personal thanksgiving to God for his answering our prayers. When people throughout the Episcopal Church contribute generously to this program, much can be accomplished. The donations received are used to provide grants, which are submitted to the National UTO for consideration. Examples are starting up a soup kitchen or providing long overdue repairs to a church in need. Over the years, our own diocese has been blessed to receive UTO grants to further the kingdom of God here on Long Island. Place your envelope or BLUE BOX in the collection plate, and it will be blessed at the Offertory. You may also mail your offering to the Church Office. All donations need to be in to the church office by October 26, so that we can present them at the National Convention in November.

STAR SEARCH 2013!

It's almost here!

Friday, October 18th
6:30 PM in the Parish Hall

Star Search features the talent and homemade cooking of St. Ann's parishioners. Come enjoy the show and a delicious Potluck Supper!

We hope you've been practicing your acts-- singing, lion (our perhaps dog?) taming, stand-up comedy, magic, sitar playing, juggling, or any other talent you may want to entertain us with! Look for sign up sheets in the Parish Hall—both for Talent and Potluck Dishes.

PS--We need lots of sitters and watchers too!

9/11 Remembrance

The Choir was pleased to be invited to participate in the Annual Remembrance Ceremony for 9/11 at Sayville's Common Ground. Rick Magnani opened the service with The Star Spangled Banner, and the Choir followed, singing two patriotic hymns. We were happy to see a good many St. Ann's parishioners among the audience.

OCTOBER BIBLE STUDY WITH MOTHER DIANE

The Book of Ruth

You are invited to join Mother Diane for a Bible Study exploring the Book of Ruth on October 2, 9, and 16 (Wednesdays) at 9:30 AM in the Parish Hall.

There is a signup sheet on the bulletin board in the Parish Hall.

All are welcome!

All Souls' Day

Friday, November 1, All Saints' Day; November 2 is All Souls' Day. This year we will commemorate the souls of the faithful departed on Friday, November 1. Immediately following the celebration of the Holy Eucharist at 9:00 AM, a list of names of departed loved ones is read while processing through the cemetery. If you wish have a loved one's name added to this list, please submit the name by email (saintanns@optonline.net) or in writing to the church office by October 25.

Last year's list of names is posted on the bulletin board in the Parish Hall should you wish to make updates.

Remembering St. Luke the Evangelist

On October 18, we commemorate St. Luke, author of the gospel that bears his name, and its sequel, the Acts of the Apostles. In the gospel's introduction, Luke demonstrates his concern for accuracy: "I ... decided, after investigating everything carefully ... to write an orderly account ..." (Luke 1:3, NRSV). He also carefully sets the historical context for his much-loved telling of Jesus' birth, naming specific rulers to help us know the approximate date (Luke 2:1-2).

In Acts, Luke recounts the ministries of the earliest Christians, including a detailed travelogue. In some chapters, Luke writes in the first person, indicating that he was, at least some of the time, among the first apostles. Amazingly, Luke is the author of a greater portion of the New Testament than Paul, as most would think. The books of Luke and Acts comprise a greater portion (60 pages) of the New Testament than all the letters written by Paul (56 pages).

Colossians 4:14 calls Luke the beloved physician. According to tradition, he was also a painter and created the first icon of Jesus' mother, Mary.

Many times God calls us to do His work with a small voice. I think of it in terms of little “niggings”--no great plan, but little hints of what He is calling us to do for His Kingdom. Throughout my life I have had opportunities to prepare me to work with Native Americans. They were in this country long before our families came to settle and we certainly have not treated the natives with compassion and love as Christ teaches us. In studying the Native American culture, we find many similarities with the focus of God and Christ in Christianity. Many natives were introduced to our beliefs and continue to worship in churches in this country.

During my teaching career I taught at schools in upstate New York where Native American students attended classes. I have read many books on how Native Americans were treated by the white people taking over their lands. I have been especially moved that Native Americans have served this country and continue with great pride when we are at war. The Lakota were instrumental in breaking the Japanese codes during World War II.

This summer I had an opportunity to go with a mission team from St. Michael the Archangel, Colorado Springs, to the Lakota Reservation in South Dakota. Carolyn Moulton, a Daughter of the King in Colorado Springs, had applied for a DOK Self-Denial grant, and Fr. Gary Parker, who had been our Priest-In-Charge served at her church in Colorado after being at St. Ann's. South Dakota was also one of five states I had not travelled to. Do you see the “niggings” that God was sending me? It was a wonderful experience working at St. Julia's Episcopal Church on the Reservation. We painted the church and driveway fence, built a huge cross for the church cemetery, and attended worship on Sunday. We sang the Doxology in the Lakota language and it was an awesome sound to give praise to God for our mission work experience. A give-away of fresh produce after the Sunday community dinner was a moving tribute to the congregation. We fostered great friendships, served lots of meat and cheese sandwiches, and gave our love to all we worked with. This is true mission work.

How can you do the work Christ is calling you to do? Donate money for mission trips. Go on a mission trip. Find mission work in your community. I pray that you will heed the voice of God's call to you. —Marjorie Rogers

NOTES

EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN

The ECW will meet on Friday morning, October 11th at 10:00 AM in the Parish Hall. We will be working on the November fair. All women of the church are considered members of the ECW and are invited to join us. –Ellen Stoll

BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS

Every year we celebrate St. Francis of Assisi, the patron saint of animals, by bringing our pets to the church for a blessing. In the past we have had dogs, cats, parrots, guinea pigs, goldfish, and other assorted pets. This year the Blessing of the Animals will be on Sunday, October 6, at 2:00 PM on the front lawn of the church. In the event of rain, we will gather in the Parish Hall.

OUR DAILY BREAD

Please remember our neighbors in need of food and bring in whatever non-perishable items you can for our Food Pantry. Monetary donations enable restocking of shelves when necessary. There is always a great need for Parmalat, tomato sauce, crackers, jelly, and juice. Thanks for all you do.

Food Pantry hours are Monday & Thursday, 10:00 AM – 12:00 Noon. Volunteers are always welcomed.

TUESDAY YOGA

Looking for a new fall activity? Every Tuesday afternoon in the Parish Hall you'll find a small dedicated group working a Christian Yoga routine. We listen to a tape of relatively low impact exercises narrated by the Rev. Nancy Roth, an Episcopal priest. The class begins at 1:30 and ends a little before 3:00 PM. All ages, both women and men, are welcome. Bring a non-skid mat and join us.

WHAT WE'D LIKE TO HEAR IN CHURCH

- Hey, it's my turn to sit in the front pew!
- I was so enthralled, I never noticed your sermon ran longer than usual.
- I'll volunteer to be the permanent junior high Sunday school teacher.
- I love it when we sing hymns I've never heard before.
- I think we should send the Rector to this Bible seminar in the Bahamas.
- Nothing inspires me and strengthens my commitment like our annual stewardship campaign.

All-Around Trust

A pitfall to trusting God, which we are prone to fall into, is to turn to God in trust in the greater [crises] of life while seeking to work through the minor difficulties ourselves. A disposition to trust in ourselves is part of our sinful nature. It sometimes takes a major crisis, or at least a moderate one, to turn us toward the Lord. A mark of Christian maturity is to continually trust the Lord in the minutiae of daily life. If we learn to trust God in the minor adversities, we will be better prepared to trust him in the major ones. —Jerry Bridges, Trusting God

❖ The Garden of the Unforgotten ❖

FREDERICK HORN

SECTION 23—LOT 8

FREDERICK HORN, who died in February of 1975, was a familiar, well loved person in Sayville. Every morning residents of Gillette Avenue would see him leave his house, carrying the American flag to Gillette Park where he would raise it on the Town flag pole. At night, he could be seen returning to the park to lower the flag and carry it back home.

Born in London, England, in 1890, he was brought to the United States as an infant. He began summering in Sayville in 1910 and moved here in 1923. At one time he was in the hardware business and had two stores in New York City. Later he became a cabinet maker at the Lockheed Company and eventually retired from there.

Mr. Horn was a past president of the New York Hardware Association, a 60 year life member of the Bay Ridge Minerva Lodge #792 Free and Accepted Masons, Kismet Temple Shriners of New Hyde Park, a member of the Sayville Republican Club, and a parishioner at St. Ann's Episcopal Church.

He was survived by two sons, Frederick L. and Herbert E., both of Sayville; eight grandsons in Sayville; two grandsons in California; one granddaughter in Boca Raton, Florida; two great-grandchildren; and two great-great grandchildren.

Mr. Horn was buried from St. Ann's Episcopal Church and interred in the cemetery there.

+Christian Symbol+

Seeds

The Bible often uses seeds as symbols of faith or God's Word. In the Old Testament, seeds also refer to offspring. Jesus said people who believe in him can perform mighty deeds with "faith the size of a mustard seed" (Luke 17:6, NRSV). Many of Jesus' teachings use seed imagery; for example, in the parable of the four soils, he said the seed, God's Word, can grow only when people hear it, "hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patient endurance" (Luke 8:15, NRSV).

A True Original

A real Christian is an odd [individual]. He feels supreme love for one whom he has never seen; talks familiarly every day to someone he cannot see; expects to go to heaven on the virtue of another; empties himself in order to be full; admits he is wrong so he can be declared right; goes down in order to get up; is strongest when he is weakest, richest when he is poorest and happiest when he feels the worst. He dies so he can live; forsakes in order to have; gives away so he can keep; sees the invisible, hears the inaudible, and knows that which passes knowledge.

The man who has met God is not looking for anything; he has found it. He is not searching for light, for upon him the light has already shined. ... He is not a copy, not a facsimile. He is an original from the hand of the Holy Spirit. —A.W. Tozer

ST. BARNABAS' BUDDIES

Whether you need help or can give help, call Gerry Hoek at 631-868-7278 for further information.

- (1) Prepare a meal for someone recovering from a recent illness or fall.
- (2) Drive someone to a doctor's appointment and bring them home.
- (3) Bring someone to church (perhaps once a month) if they are unable to drive.
- (4) Make a phone call to someone homebound just to let them know they are not forgotten.
